16 The Plaintiff alleges that he wrote a
17 letter of complaint to the Davita cooperative
18 office in Irvine California regarding actions
19 by Davita Upstate Dialysis Center. The 20 cooperative office never answered the Plaintiff's
21 complaint letter. Because the cooperative
22 headquarters did nothing, Davita Upstate's
23 employees conspired with Carolina Nephrology
24 to deprive Plaintiff, an African American
25 patient directly and indirectly of equal
26 privileges of receiving dialysis treatment
27 at their Upstate facility because of his 28 race, contrary to 42 U.S.C 1985 (3). The Plaintiff alleges the racial harassment was

1 III. STATEMENT OF CLAIM - continued

2 Class-based invidiously discriminatory animus.
3 The conspiracy included Carolina Nephrology,
4 and their Nephrologist, who agreed with 5 the employees of DaVita Upstate to 6 interfere with his civil rights while 7 receiving life support dialysis. The 8 object of their conspiracy was to deny
9 Plaintiff, a dialysis patient, of equal
10 treatment as those of the majority
11 group, which caused Plaintiff psychological
12 and physical harm, by racially disparaging
13 Plaintiff, making derogatory statements
14 regarding his personal and private life
15 while on dialysis. The Plaintiff alleges 16 that the conspirators were all of the 17 majority group (white) including the 18 Physician, Chokri Aliqaa of Carolina
19 Nephrology.

20 The Plaintiff alleges that the employee
21 comments offended African American patients
22 as well as one caucasian patient, who 23 stated to me, "Everybody knew this group
24 was willing to do you like that."
25 The Plaintiff alleges that his blood pressure
26 was the highest ever at DaVita Upstate
27 compared to other dialysis centers because 28 of the racial disengagement.

2

Plaintiff alleges nothing was done and no help was offered because the object of the conspiracy was accomplished. The Nephrologist lied about the medication refill, Valium, because he participated in the concerted effort to deny Plaintiff of a stress free environment while receiving life support dialysis. This same physician stated on one occasion.... "I see you got this group to back off of you." (in presence of Davita employees and patients) The Plaintiff alleges that he protested their discrimination and invasion of privacy by engaging in "protected activity" by picketing and demonstrating with a large poster/sign outside of Davita Upstate's facility. The protest was observed by Audrey Hartfield, social worker and a white female dialysis employee. The Plaintiff alleges that the employee knew her coworkers were willing to conspire to hurt and discriminate against Plaintiff. This dialysis employee, Plaintiff alleges, said, "That's why they (her coworkers) did you like that." (referring to the protest poster) This employee did not disparage Plaintiff, but verbalized her disgust for her peers.

1 111. STATEMENT OF CLAIM - continued.

2 The Plaintiff alleges that actions was to 3 cover up the conspiracy. The Plaintiff was 4 denied personal, natural rights, immunities
5 guaranteed by and protected by the
6 Constitution and to participate in federally
7 assisted dialysis very close to his home
8 IN GREENVILLE, which was race-based. The 9 Plaintiff alleges that in furtherance of 10 the conspiracy, the facility charge nurse
11 evaded what her staff did and
12 stated, "I don't want you to have a
13 stroke." (days after the egregious conduct)
14 Again, the Plaintiff alleges that no
15 federal enforcement group would do
16 anything, including investigate his
17 complaints. The FCC office in Cerritos,
18 California helped Plaintiff discover
19 which Adventist groups had FCC
20 licensed satellite transmitters and 21 the gentleman stated, "continue your 22 research and approach it from the 23 health aspects. FBI did nothing but 24 lie and deceive Plaintiff because of the 25 "Big" groups involved. (Broadcasters)
26 "Black Lives do Matter!"
